Subject: PRIVILEGED & CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY-CLIENT COMMUNICATION - RFP

John, do not move any money between accounts; that would look like hiding assets and could lead to sanctions.

On House 1, our position is that it is your separate property, but the community has a reimbursement claim for the loan payments Jane made, so we should expect to concede part of the principal paydown.

I'm also asking Accountant Y to trace your parents' payments, which may help us argue those were gifts to you alone.

Please send me whatever Bank A and Bank B records you have by Friday.
